

Our Family "To do" list

UNIT 1

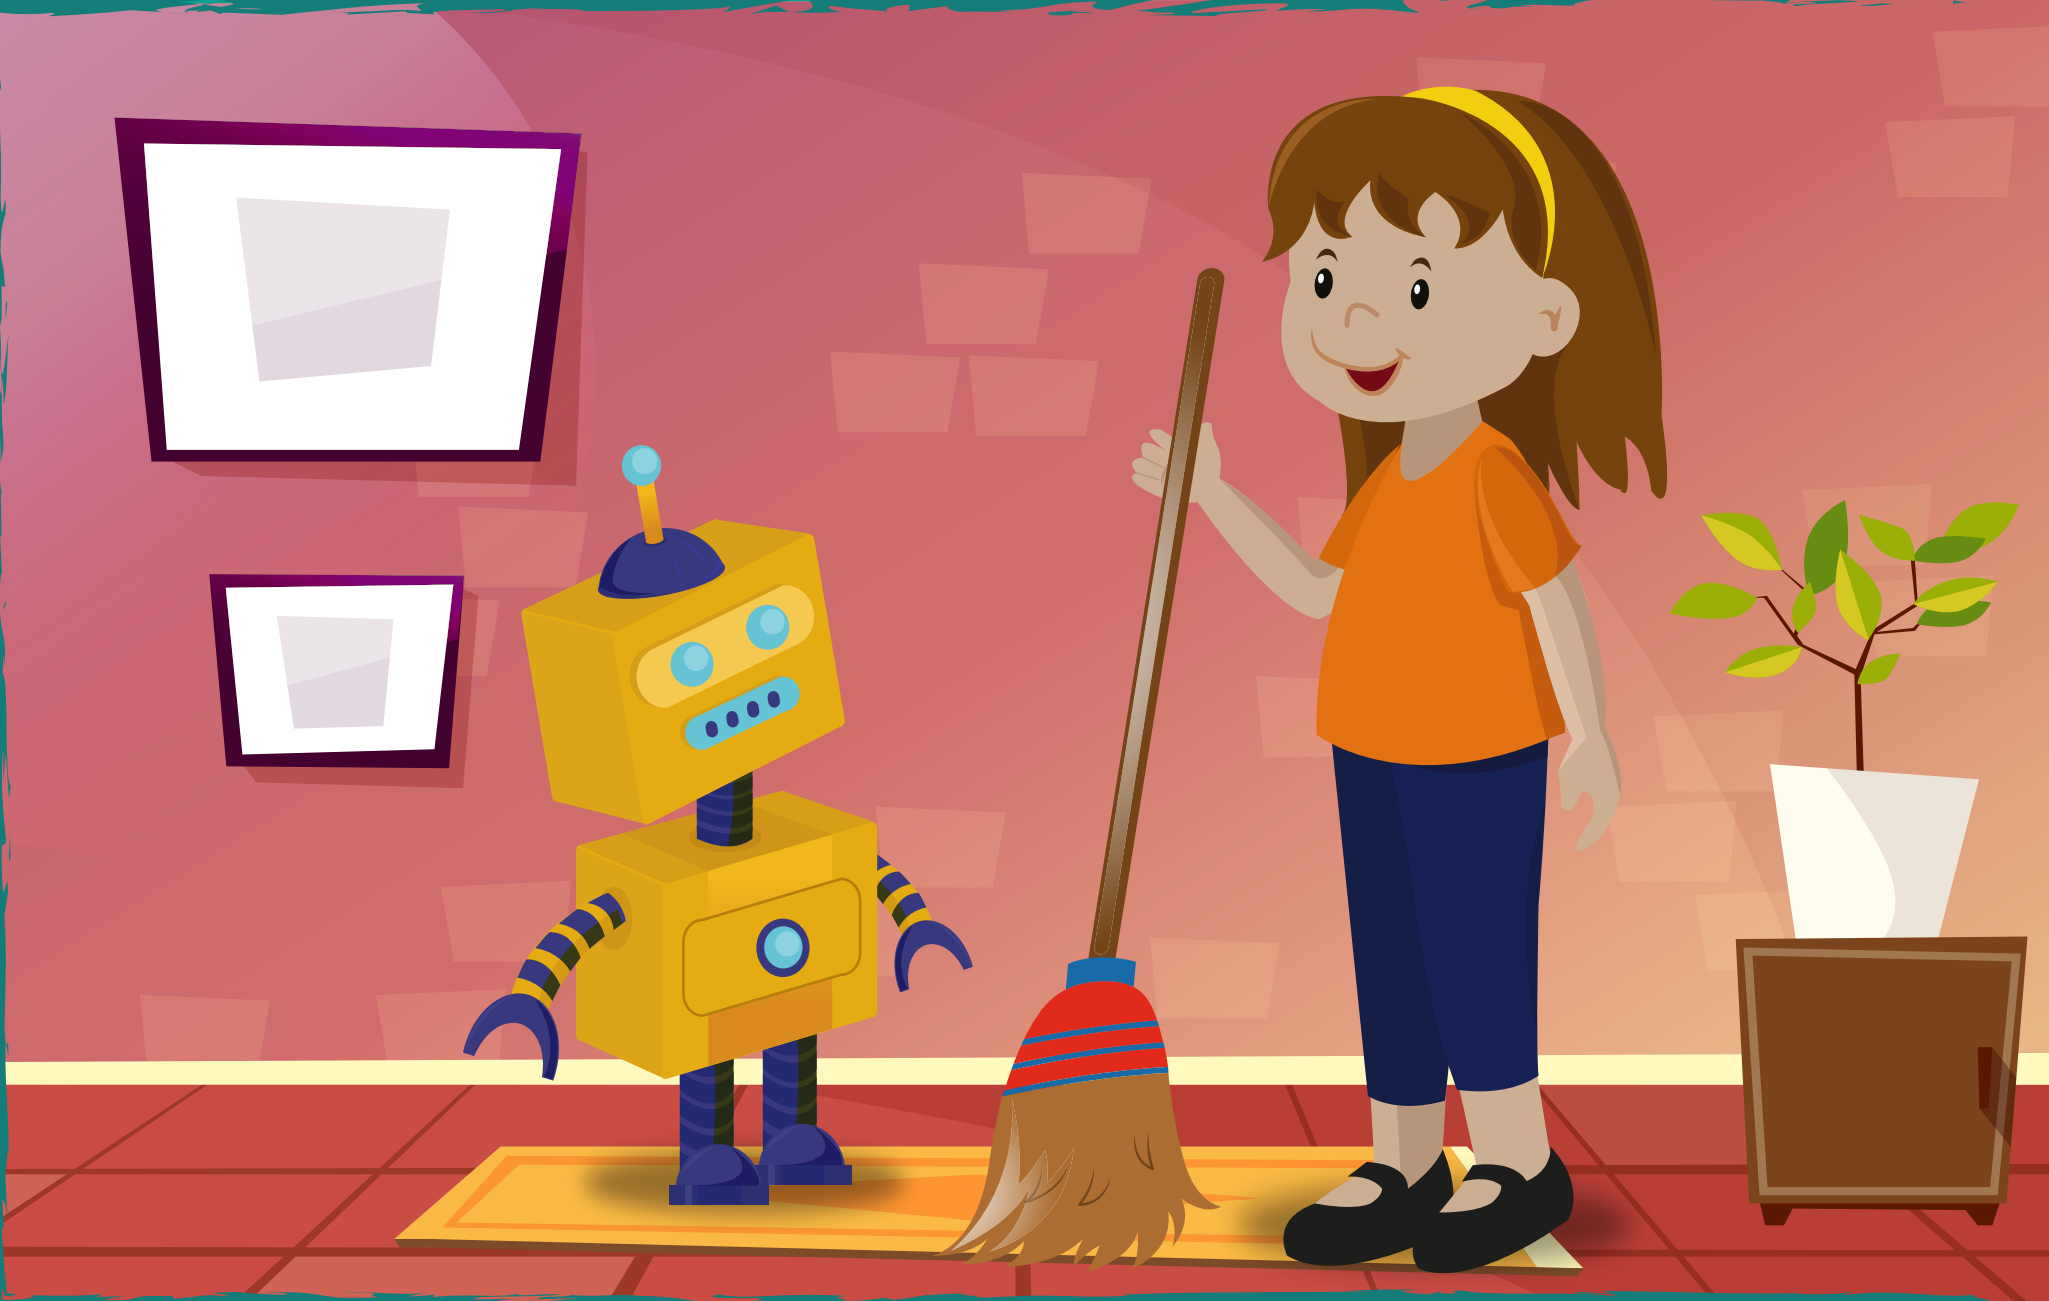

This is María. She is an inventor. She makes robots. Today, María finishes building her five robots.

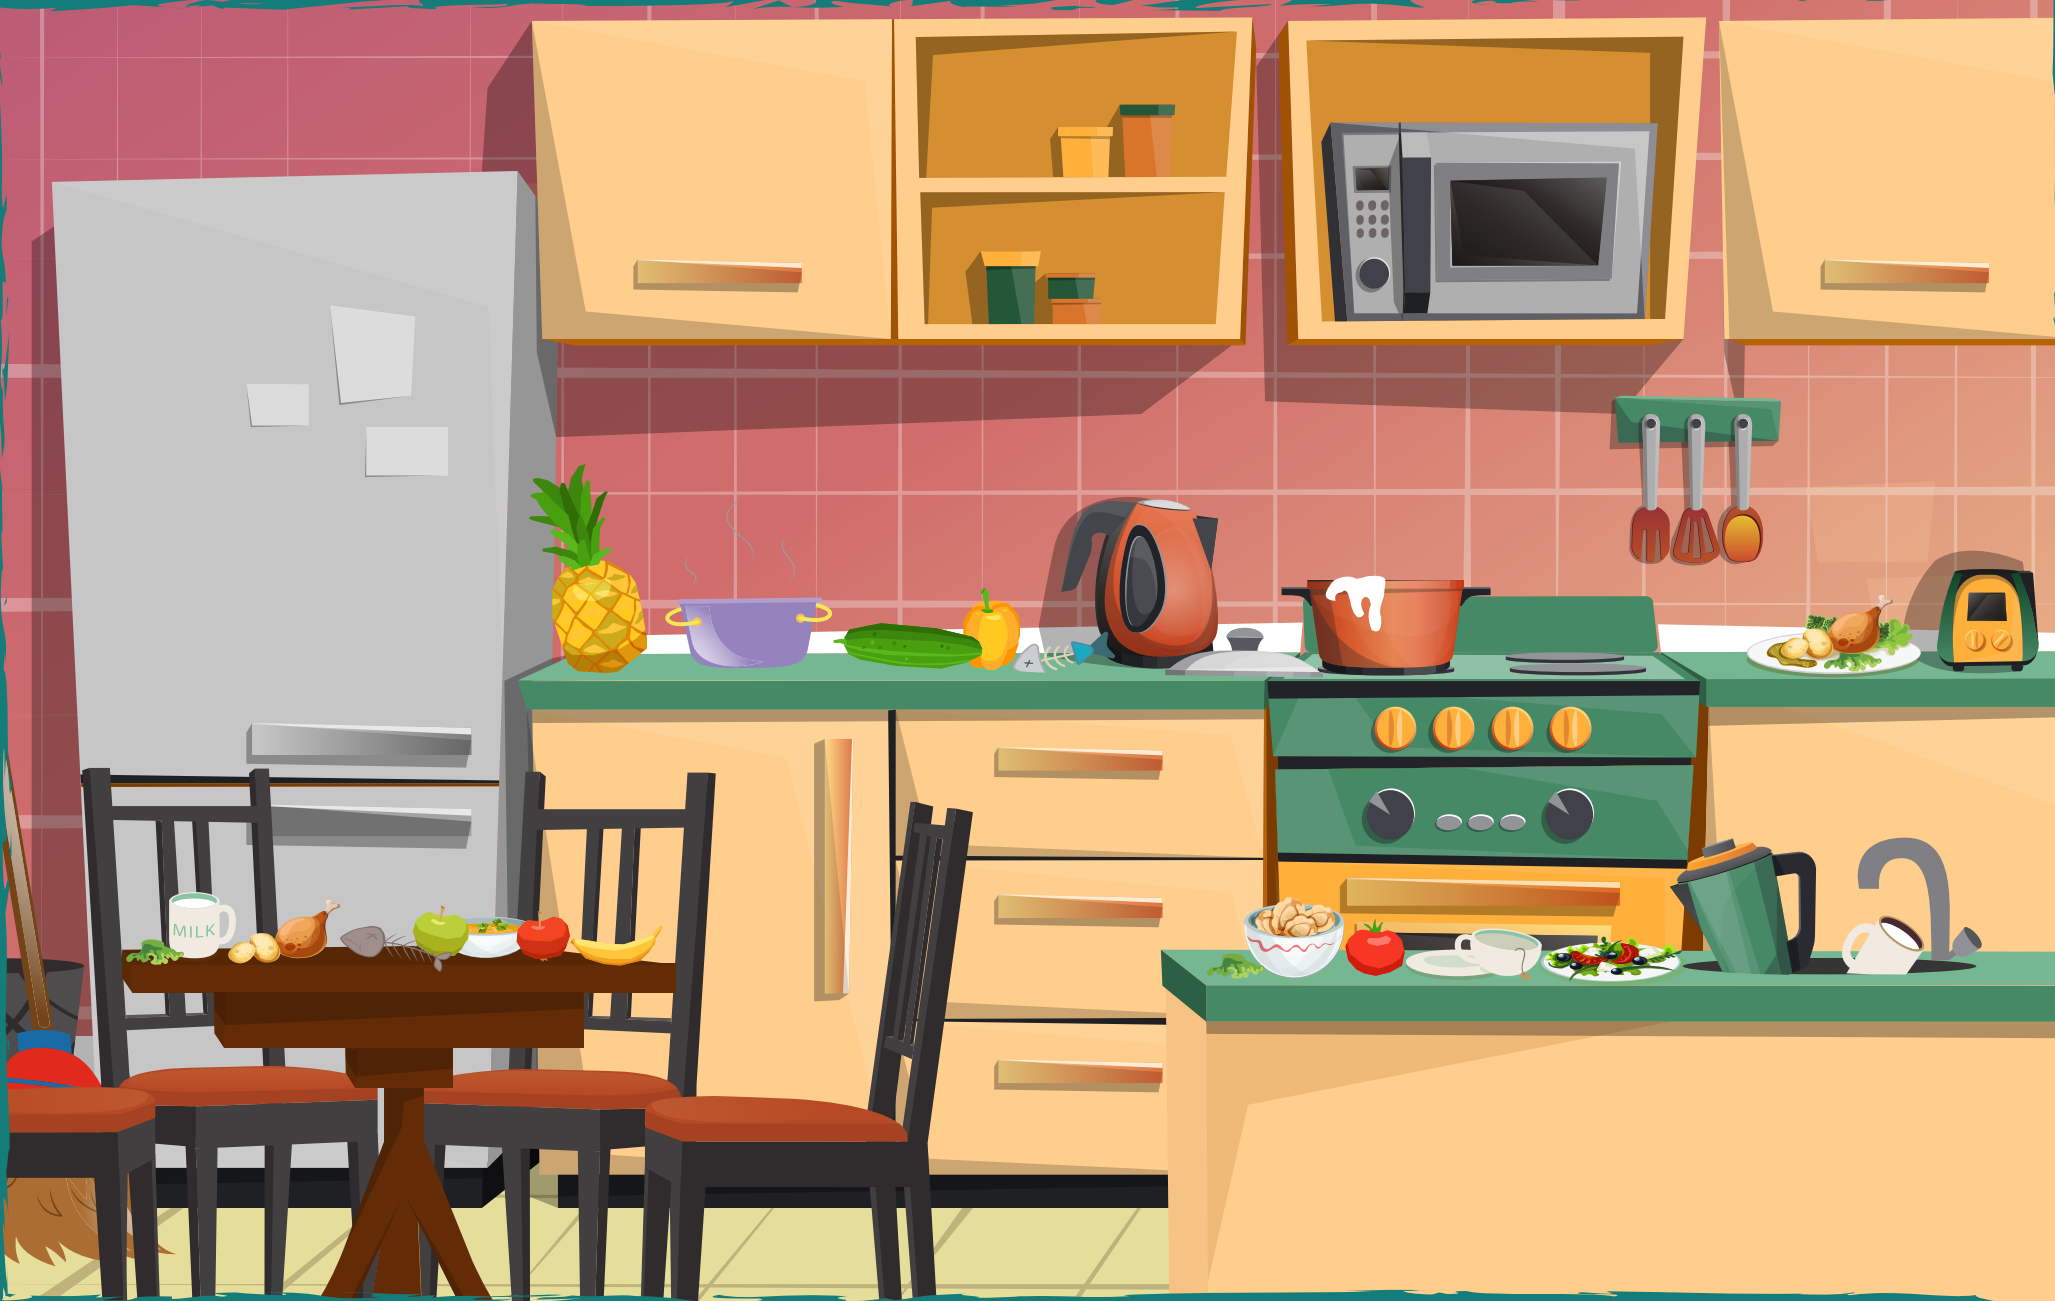

María: Finished! Now I can teach my robots about how humans live before I send them to live with different families.

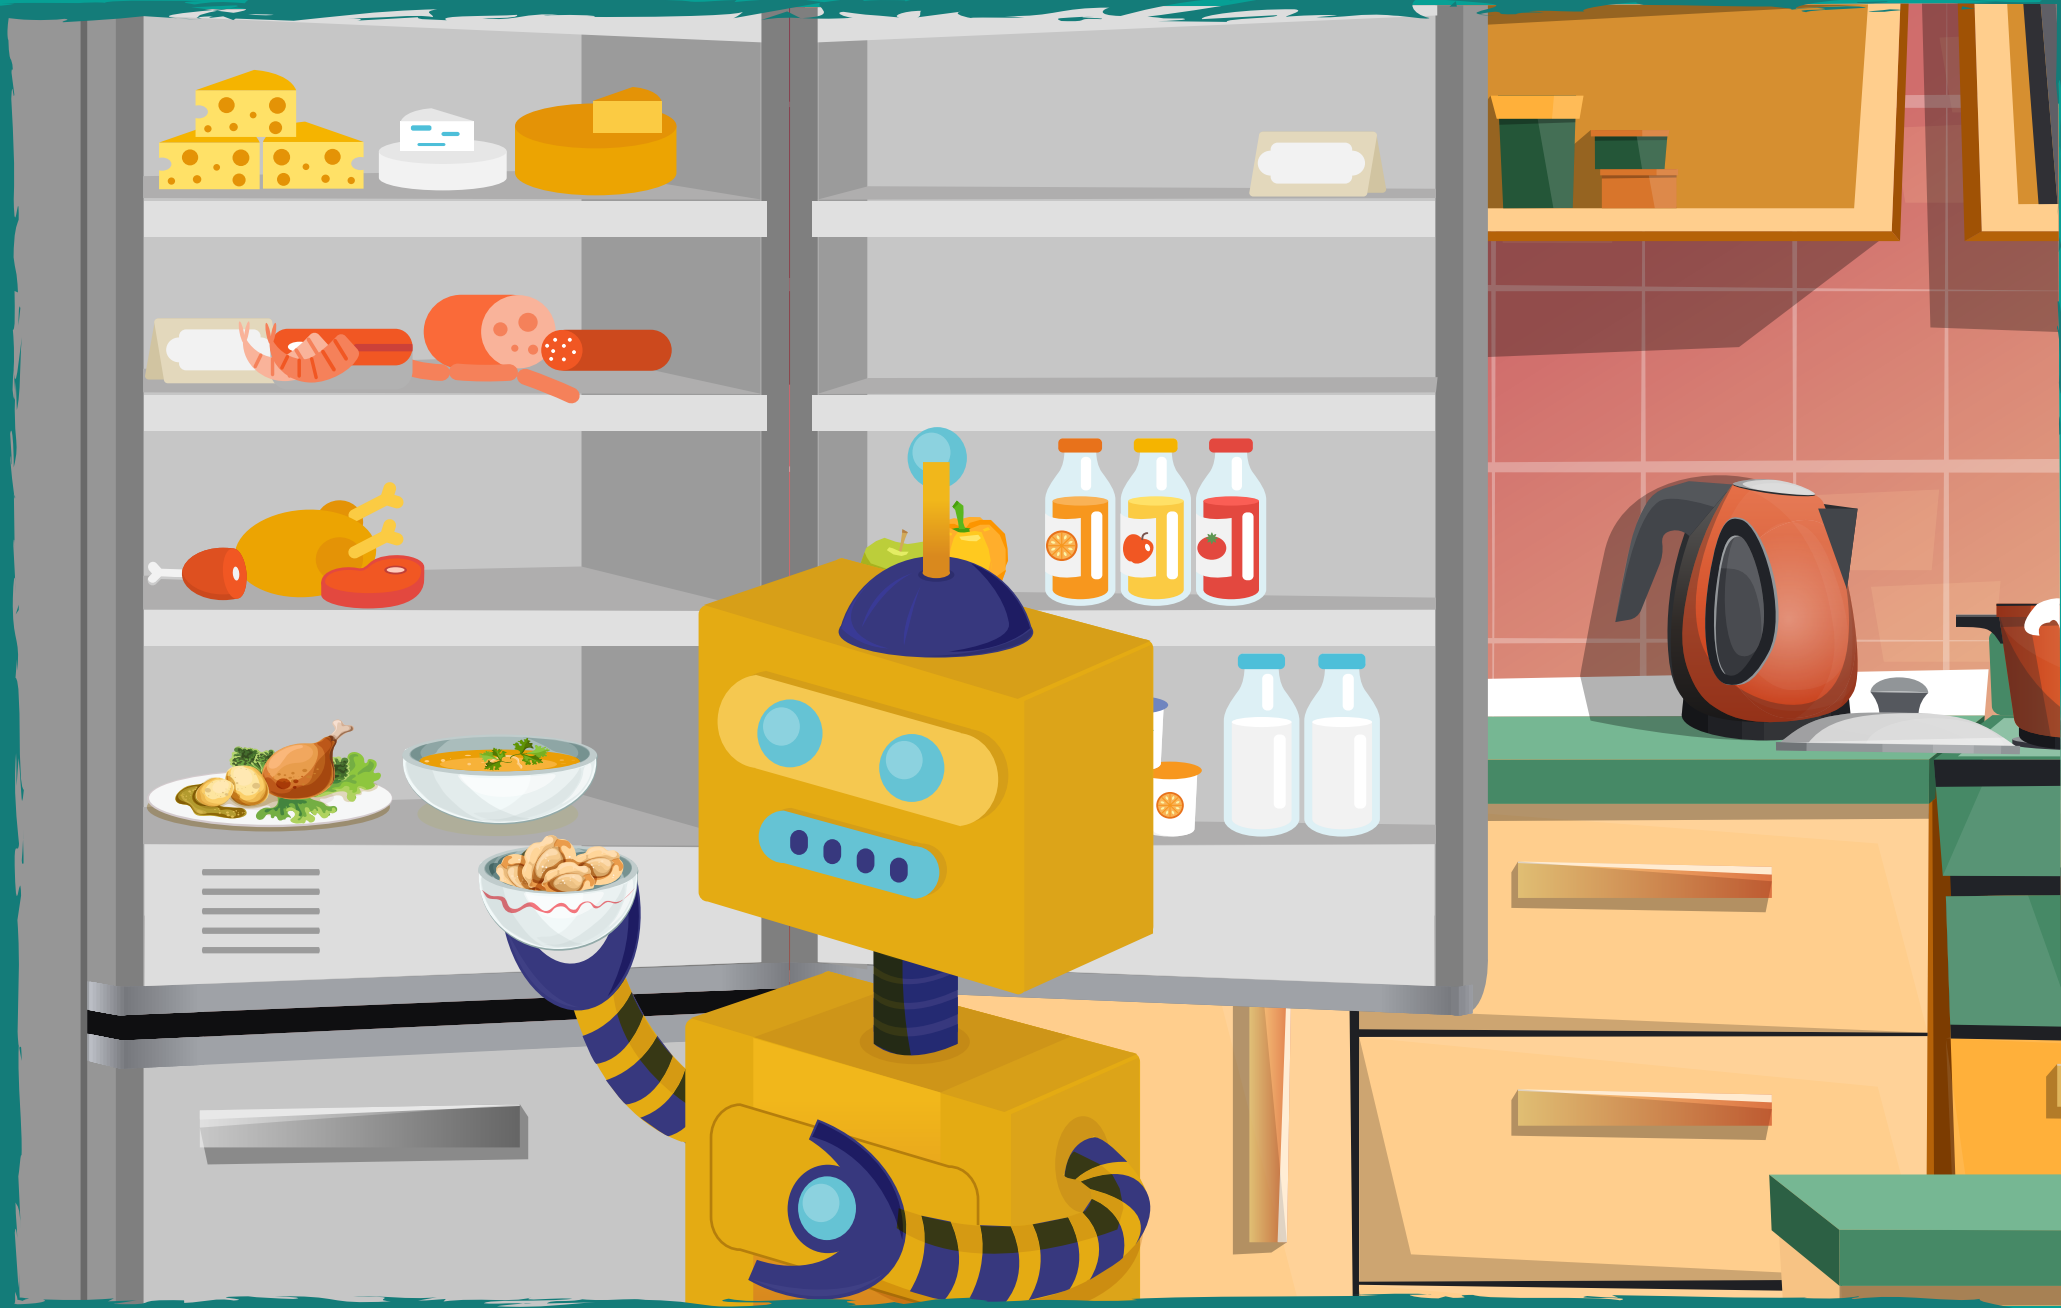

María: First, I teach you, Canman, about how we keep our house clean.

Canman: Ok, I am ready to learn.

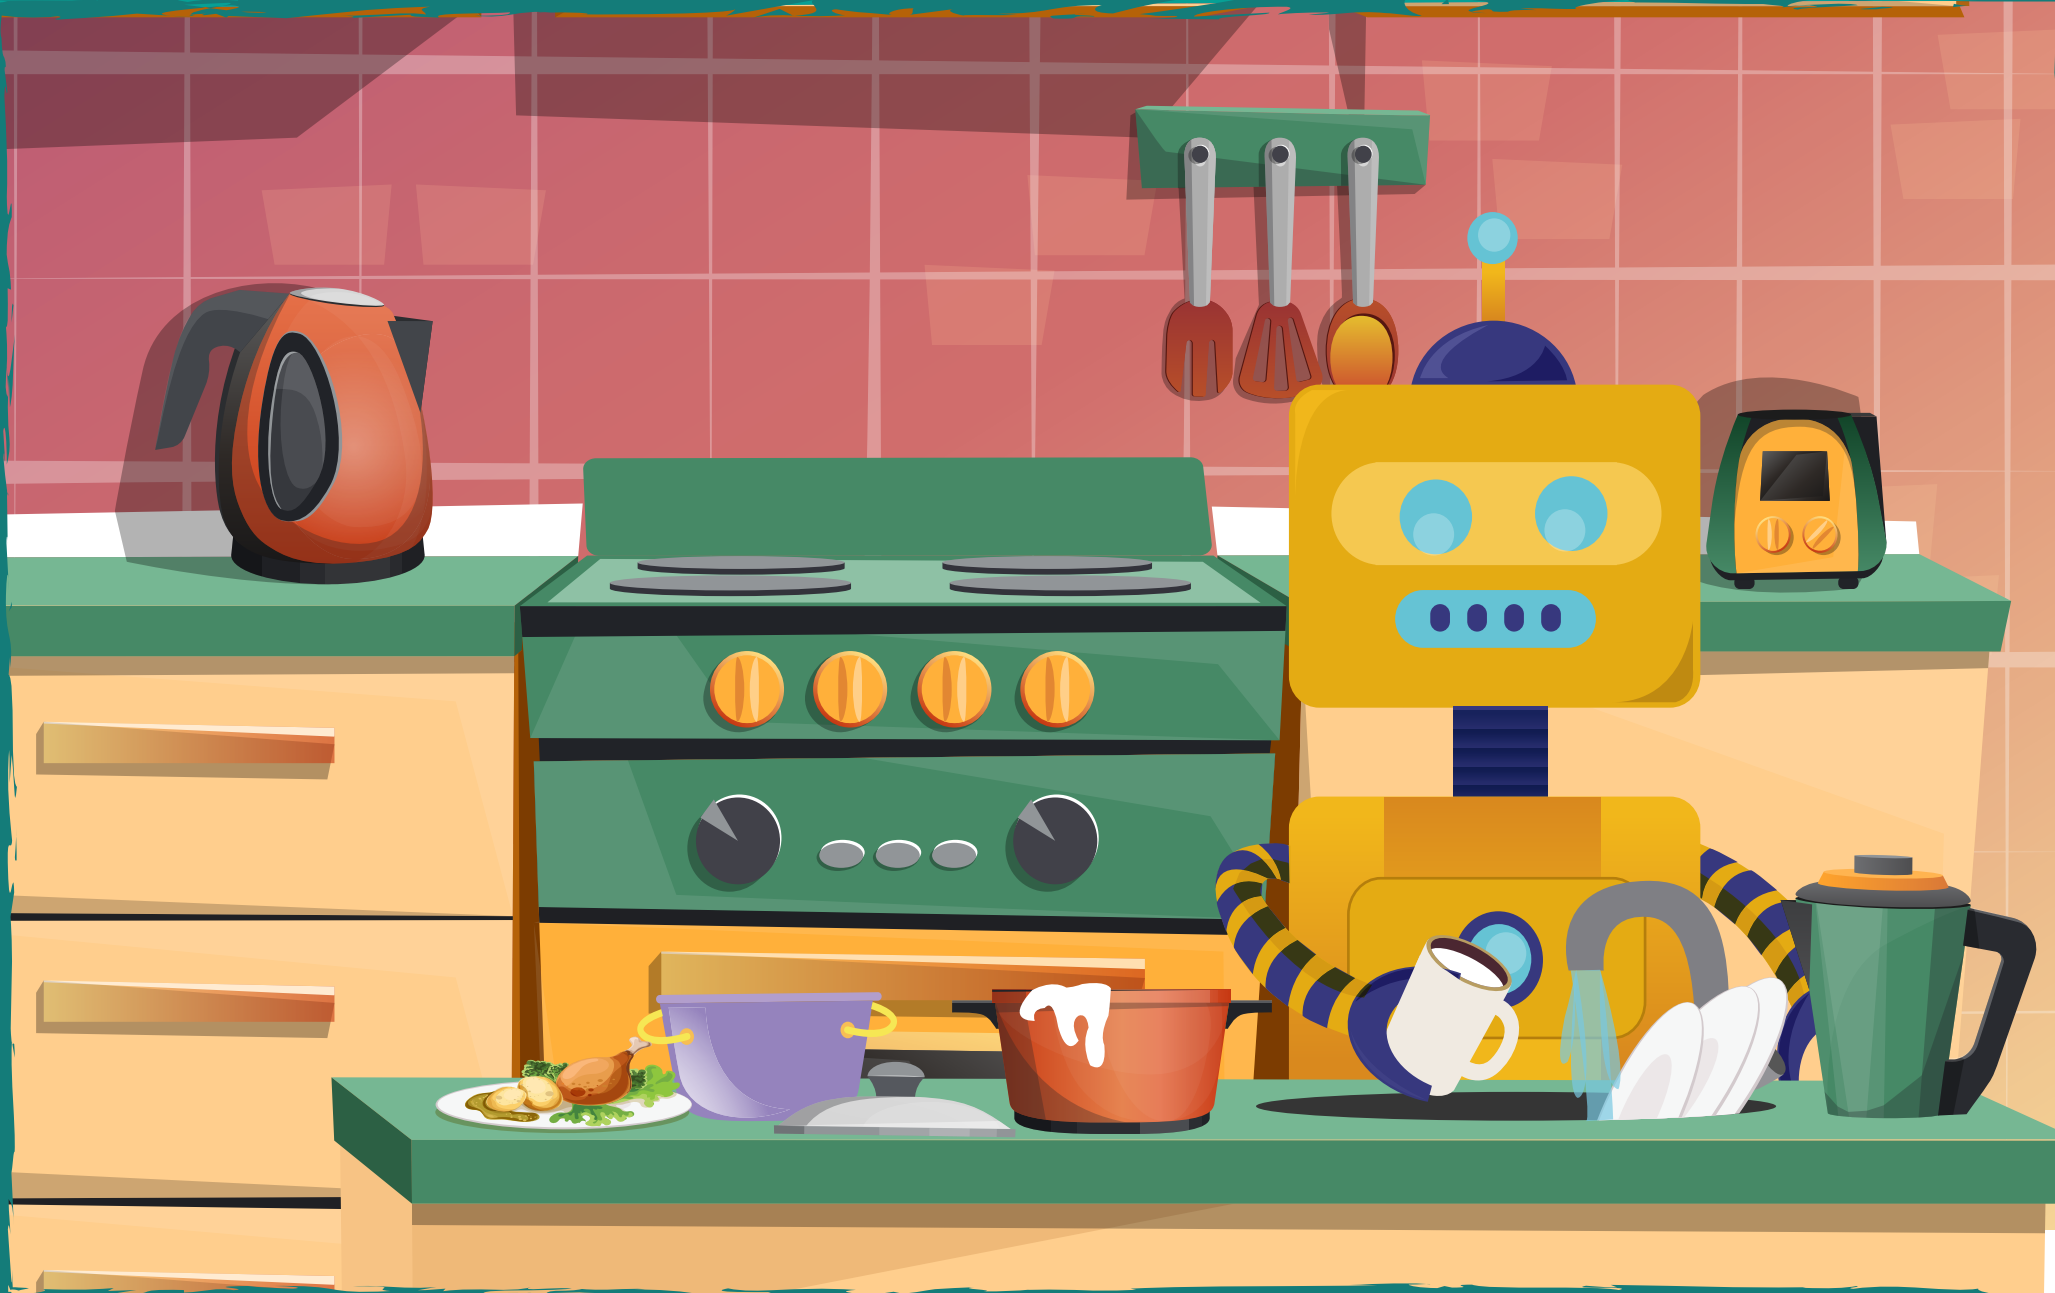

María: This kitchen is a mess! First, we need to put the food back in the refrigerator.

Canman: Am I doing it correctly?

María: Yes, Canman. Good job! Now we need to wash the dishes. Here, use soap and this sponge.

Canman: So my job is washing dishes in my new home?

María: No, Canman.

María: Families share the chores. Sometimes somebody else does the dishes and you do a different chore.

Canman: What is another chore in a house?
María: Come with me! This room is messy, too!

María: We need to dust and sweep. Just sweep the dirt to one place, then sweep it into this dust pan. Here, Canman, you can sweep with this broom while I dust off the table and the TV.

María: Good job, Canman!

Canman: Thank you. Now where do I put the dirt?

María: Put it in the trashcan.

Canman: Where is the trashcan?

María: Over here!

Canman: Thank you. Do I always have to sweep in my new home?

María: No, Canman.

María: Remember, families share the chores. Maybe the mother sweeps, and the father dusts. Or maybe the mother washes the dishes, and the son or daughter sweeps.
